We confirm that (to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves):

This includes journal entries, changes to account coding, classification of certain transactions and preparation of, or changes to, certain accounting records.
- The effects of uncorrected misstatements are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements as a whole. A list of the uncorrected misstatements is attached to this representation letter

 - iii) Information on any other matters, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation of the financial statements
- c) Ensuring that all transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements; and

We have disclosed to you:

- a) All of our knowledge in relation to actual, alleged or suspected fraud affecting the entity's financial statements involving:

- b) All of our knowledge in relation to allegations of fraud or suspected fraud communicated by employees, former employees, analysts, regulators or others;
- c) All known instances of non-compliance or suspected non-compliance with laws and regulations, including all aspects of contractual agreements that should be considered when preparing the financial statements;

Estimates

We acknowledge our responsibility for determining the accounting estimates required for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. Those estimates reflect our judgment based on our knowledge and experience of past and current events, and on our assumptions about conditions we expect to exist and courses of action we expect to take. We believe that the significant assumptions and measurement methods used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.
